

ODLUM BROWN

presents

Harmony Festival

MEDIA RELEASE

Music comes home to the Harmony Arts Festival

West Vancouver, BC, June 4, 2018 — From jazz to folk to big band standards, there is a musical genre to suit every taste at the Harmony Arts Festival, presented by Odlum Brown Limited. Many of Canada's celebrated and beloved performers visit one of the two stages, bringing down the house and rocking long into the warm summer night.

Venues

The festival offers four great musical series over 10 days, featuring live performances day and evening on two stages. Admission is free for all performances.

- The PARC Retirement Living Garden Concerts on the PARC Retirement Living Garden Stage in Millennium Park offers daily performances with daytime, dinner and late-night concerts.
- The Main Stage in John Lawson Park hosts two musical programs. The Onni Group Sunset Concerts offer a stunning selection of performers at 7:30 p.m. on each night of the festival. Enjoy a range of classic performances during the afternoon Seniors' Series, sponsored by Hollyburn House.
- Three afternoon performances of smooth jazz along West Vancouver's gorgeous waterfront are offered at Live Music at the Silk Purse.

Featured Performers

The Hip Show

Dive deep into the music, image, sounds, roles and sheer essence of The Tragically Hip with The Hip Show. Their poignant and emotional homage to the iconic Canadian band has captivated audiences across Canada.

PARC Retirement Living Garden Stage | Friday, August 3, 8:45–10 p.m.

Jim Byrnes

Legendary bluesman and hometown hero, Jim Byrnes brings his trademark style back to the Harmony Arts Festival with a thrilling collection of blues standards and storytelling. He has been performing for more than fifty years with a range that ambles between rockabilly, gospel, country and even jazz. Don't miss this sure-fire festival favourite!

PARC Retirement Living Garden Stage | Tuesday, August 7, 8:45–10 p.m.

Adam Woodall Band

West Vancouver's own Adam Woodall Band returns to the Harmony Arts Festival this year with a selection of audience favourites. One of Vancouver's most captivating ensembles and with a style to suit every mood, this is one show you don't want to miss!

PARC Retirement Living Garden Stage | Tuesday, August 7, 5:45–7:30 p.m.

Buckman Coe

Buckman Coe seamlessly blends Americana, soul and world into a distinct and authentic sound, inspired by artists who deliver messages of social justice, humanity and love.

Onni Group Sunset Concerts, Main Stage | Sunday, August 5, 7:30–8:45 p.m.

Wooden Horsemen

Garnering critical praise with their folk-laden debut album in 2013, Wooden Horsemen have expanded their sound to encompass a distinctly unique flavour of pop-sensible melodies. The Wooden Horsemen promises to get the dance floor grooving.

PARC Retirement Living Garden Stage | Wednesday, August 8, 8:45–10 p.m.

Shawn Austin

A graduate of West Vancouver Secondary School, Shawn Austin has emerged as a thrilling new voice in the Canadian country scene. His first single “Paradise Found” has shot into the top 10 of the Country Music Charts and he has toured with country superstar Dallas Smith’s Side Effects Tour. Shawn’s new single “Get Me There” has audiences clamouring for more of his sultry sound.

Onni Group Sunset Concerts, Main Stage | Thursday, August 9, 7:30–8:45 p.m.

For more information visit harmonyarts.ca.

-30-

Media Contact: Marnie Wilson, Publicist, Harmony Arts Festival
604-836-2409 | mwilson@theartsbiz.com

major sponsors

PARK ROYAL

RE/MAX[®]